9.2 Supply the correct case for the italicized expressions of spatial relationships; e.g., for

"I am going into the city," I would use the accusative (of motion toward).

The army marched up to (or onto or against) the wall.

We found the treasure in the city.

The god came down from Olympus.

The coward ran away from the battle.

We sat together with the Trojan elders.

The warriors emerged from the side of the Trojan horse.

Zeus sat on his throne.

The Greeks are encamped near Troy.

The Greeks will march toward Troy.

Achilles ran in pursuit of Hector.