

155.1 Exercise: optatives, subjunctives, imperatives

Provide a correct verb form for the underlined words or expressions. There may be more than one possibility.

(φεύγω, φεύξομαι, ἔφυγον)

Let's flee. (subj) _____

They could flee. (κέν + opt.) _____

Don't flee! (μή with aor. subj.) _____

Flee! (pl. imperative) _____

(πλάζω, πλάγομαι, ἐπλάξα)

May the gods beat back the Achaeans. (opt) _____

Trojans, beat back the Achaeans from the gates! (imperative) _____

If you (sg.) were to beat back the Achaeans [opt. since I'm not entirely confident], Troy would survive. _____

We might beat back the Achaeans. (potential κέν + opt.) _____

(λύω, λύσω, ἔλυσα)

Ransom (sg.) the priest's daughter! _____

Free (pl.) the priest's daughter! _____

Let's ransom the priest's daughter. _____

May the gods free the priest's daughter. (opt.) _____

Let him ransom the priest's daughter. (subj.) _____