

3.1

Spell these English words using Greek letters (with breathing marks, if necessary).

For this exercise

- use kappa (κ) to represent c when it is a hard k-sound.
- use ksi (ξ) to represent the English x (ks) sound.
- use a single Greek consonant to represent the pairs of letters in bold type (th, ph).
- use a rough breathing mark (´) for an h-sound.
- use a rough breathing mark with a rho for rh
- use a rough breathing mark (´) for an h-sound.

cake		taylor
Sparta		lo mein
r heum		hero
Rhodes		keen
maybe		s phinx
p hobia		nuke
merely		Ah!
th ete		dork
poke		th rough
bistro		p hoto

(For “official” rules for transliterating from Greek to English, see 623–25.)