

8.1 Key to English sentence analysis

1) He demanded a second bowl.

He (a. subject). | demanded (b. verb). | bowl (c. dir. object.)

2) "Tell me your name now, quickly."

(Implied "you" (a. subject) | tell (b. verb) | name (c. dir. obj.)
(to) me (d. ind. obj; in Engl. the "to" is often implied.)

3) "I will give my guest a gift."

I (a. subj) | will give (b. verb/predicate) | gift c. dir. obj)
(to) guest (d. indir. obj.)

4) "The rains from Zeus build our wine's strength, but this is nectar, ambrosia."

(Clause 1) Rains (a. subject). | build (b. verb) | strength (c. dir. object)

(Clause 2) this (a. subject) | is (b. verb) \ nectar , ambrosia (e. both predicate nouns),

5) "It flows from heaven."

It (a. subject) | flows (b. verb)

6) I gave him another fiery bowl.

I (a. subject) | gave (b. verb) | bowl (c. dir. obj.)
(to) him (d. ind. object)

7) Three bowls he drank to the last drop.

he (a. subject) | drank (b. verb) | bowls (c. dir. obj.)

Continued on next page.

8) "I will tell you my name, but you must give me a guest-gift." (Two main clauses)

I (a. subject) | will tell (b. verb/predicate) | name (c. dir. obj.)
(but) (to) you (d. ind. object)

you (a. subject) | must give (b. verb/predicate) | gift (c. dir. obj.)
(to) me (d. ind. obj.)

9) "I am 'No-one'."

I (a. subject) | am (b. verb) \ 'No-one' (e. pred. noun)